Secretary Harry Kuhl gives notice to owners at the local tracks that all badges now outstanding for owners, trainers, jockeys and stable employes of all grades must be turned in before next Sunday in exchange for new ones. None of those now out will be good for the coming meeting at Hawthorne.

Stable room is in great de nand at both local tracks. Late arrivals at Hawthorne are the stables of George C. Bennett with 14 horses; P. M. Civill, 7; Williamson & Manion, 5, and James Robertson, 3; the latter trio being jumpers. Besides these Secretary Kuhl has notice of the early arrival of the stables of Edward Corrigen, 13; A. C. Franklin, Jr., 3; W. W. Darden, 3; D. J. Lynch, 2, and T. J. Mc-Hale, 7. Mr. Corrigan's horses will rest here for a time preparatory to their long journey to California and some of them may be raced a few times. Mr. Corrigan is in Kentucky but will probably arrive here shortly for a limited stay.

In New York Friday night there was com pleted an extensive organization of breeders of thoroughbreds. The organization was conthoroughbreds. ceived during the June horse sale, when a meet ing was held and the following temporary offi cers elected:

Pesident, Gen. W. H. Jackson, owner of the famous Belle Meade stock farm near Nashville: vice president, L. O. Appleby, of Shrewsbury N. J., and secretary and treasurer, O. H. Che nault, of Lexington, Ky.

At Friday night's meeting these officers were elected to hold office permanently, with the addition of E F. Clay, of Lexington, Ky., as vice president.

A meeting of the association was held Thurs day night, at which a committee was appointed to formulate a consititution and by-laws. The committee placed its ideas on paper at a meet ing held Friday and reported to the main body at night. Those present at the meeting were:

Officers: Milton Young, Lexington; Charles Reed Gallatin, Tenn.; Clay Woodford, Kentucky; W. H. May, Lexington; J. B. Haggin, New York; R. W. Walden, New Jersey; Williams & Bradford, Kentucky; Applegate & Mc. Meekin. J. N. Camden Jr., W. Showalter, J. P. Chinn, Morgan Chinn, G. D. Wilson and T. J. Carson, all of Kentucky; William Hendrie, Canada; J. E. Cushing, Chicago; Eliot G. Gouding, New York; W. P. Horton, Louisville; Gideon & Daly, New York; Samuel Brown, Putsburg. Pa., and W. H. Jackson Jr., Ten-

The constitution adopted gives the name of the organization as the Association of Breeders of Thoroughbreds. It states that the objects of the association are primarily to guard with zealous care the thoroughbred interest in any manner that may seem best to a constitutional majority of the members in any regular meetsembled, with the hope and desire to be a valuable ally to the racing associations, since the interests of both are and ought to be identiBURNS' GOOD RIDING.

Jolly Roger, the inconsistent son of Order-Happy Sally II., ran one of his best races yesterday at Harlem, and at one mile and a quarter easily disposed of Harry Nutter, who a few days previous had easily beaten him at the same dis-That day, however, Silvers, with a broken collar bone, rode, or attempted to ride, Jolly Roger, while yesterday Beauchamp was up, and, hustling the colt along all the ways ne did not give him a chance to sulk or even think of it.

After the race the always busy scandalmonger was around explaining how Harry Nutter had beaten Jolly Roger so many lengths in 2:06% and then how Jolly Roger came right back and in 2:06 galloped away from Harry Nutter. There was no complaint about the latter not running his race, but how the other colt could improve so suddenly, they could not und stand. The fact of the matter is that Jolly Roger, when ridden by a competent boy, or when he does not sulk, can beat Harry Nutter doing anything. At least, judging from the betting in yesterday's event, the talent must doing anything. think so, as Jolly Roger was a red-hot favorite and heavily backed at even money, while Harry Nutter was almost always as good as 7 to 5.

There was little of interest or excitement in the race. Jolly Roger went to the front shortly after passing the stand the first time and holding the race safe from there on, won running

Jockey Tom Burns started in in real earnest and won three of the six races. His winning mounts were Wig, Mocorito and Georgie, and on the first and last named horses he was obliged to display his highest measure of skill

Wig's victory was in the first event and it must be credited strictly to Burns' good riding. He beat Emma M., a 100 to 1 chance, but with riders reversed the latter would have won off by herself. She was ridden by Dominick, and when the piach came the little boy became flurried and let Wig beat him by a nose on the post. Dominick in his effort to help the filly at the finish instead of being of any assistance was a bindrance. Had he sat still and let the filly do her best on her own courage she would have won. Wig was heavily backed at about 7 to 5 and after the race Burns was given a

Burns' handling of Georgie in the fourth race was very clever work. This is a filly with a turn of speed but she possesses very little stamina and has always, in her races around here, given it up when anything challenged her in the stretch, but somehow or other Burns coaxed her along, and by clever hand managed to make her last long enough to win by about a length from Tenole and Harry Tho-burn in the fast time of 1:13t. This is the best race Georgie ever ran. Kensington was an 8 to 5 favorite for the race but finished fifth, not beaten more than a length and a half all told. After the race Mr. Rogers, who trains Kensington, tried hard to impress those near him with the idea that the filly was outclassed.

Lovable, in the fifth race, which was at threequarters for two-year-olds, won in a very game and sensational way. The filly was backed consistently at 5 to 1 and her win was a very popular one. Considering the game struggle she made through the stretch any lover of a racehorse would have been compelled to appland her. Yoloco jumped out in the lead at the start and when headed for home he was three lengths in front of Lovable and was apparently going easily. On the other hand Lovable was under pressure. Flick was riding as hard as he knew how and it did not seem possible that the filly had a chance to get up. She did, though, and gaining inch by inch just managed, in the last stride, to poke her nose in front.

Mocorito appeared to be in a soft spot in the econd race and when it was seen that Burns was up she seemed almost a certainty. Her opening price was 6 to 5, but this was soon cut to even money. Later she receded to 11 to 10. As it had seemed on paper Mocorito was a certainty and she won as she pleased from Violet Parsons and McAlbert.

Andes was backed heavily in the last race, but after leading for three-quarters he collapsed, and at the end was a distant third to King's Highway and Garland Barr. King's Highway was as good as 30 to 1. He was well backed all three ways by close observers of form.

The afternoon was perfect for racing, a crowd of 6,000 was out, and the track was lightning

Winner—Ch. f, by Troubadour—Mona.
Post 4 minutes. Start poor. Won driving. Monadour ran a fine race, closing fast through the stretch and barely getting up in time to win in the last stride. Dollie Weithoff had a clear course and a fine turn of speed throughout. With a stronger finisher up she would have won. Chappaqua rar'a good race and will do to keep track of. Off at the first break to a good start. Won very easily; second driven out; third eased up.

Jolly Roger turned the tables on Harry Nutter in a surprising way. The last time the two met

Jolly Roger was besten off, but still Silvers with only the use of one arm was up that day, and again the horse is a sulker. Harry Nutter ran his race. He is an bonest little horse and tried every inch of the road. The weight was too much for Plantain and he was also outclassed by the first two. The other two were outclassed and were never contenders.

Winner—Ch. f, by Ragnarok—Georgie M.
Post 6 minutes. Start good for all but Moroni. Won hand ridden, but out to the last cunce; second, third, fourth and fifth were driving to the limit. Georgie got a flying start, took the shortest route, and was generally well ridden. She was very tired at the end. though, and barely lasted long enough to win. Tenole finished resolutely under punishment. He has improved greatly in the last thirty days. Had Harry Thoburn been able to get through at the head of the stretch he would have been hard to beat. As it was he ran a smashing good race. Abs Furst has developed a very ugly disposition. He refused to break once and sulked in the race. Kensington had no excuses. Moroni had no charce from where he got away.

Scratched—14059 Midian. 103; (14021) Pat Cleburne. 103; 14199 Miss Stanton, 101.

Georgie, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Tenole, place, 3 to 1; show, 8 to 5; show, 101.

As a Las Elect Hadding and Miles. Purse $400. $75 to second; $25 to third.

Winner—Ch. f, by Fortissimo—Lucasta.

Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won in the hardest kind of a drive; second, third and fourth were driving also. Lovable displayed great gameness. Flick was hard at work on her from the three-eighths post home. She only got up in the very last stride. Yoloco got away running and showed fine speed. He hung, though, and hung badly in the last fifty yards. Lomond had no excuses. He was a false favorite. Decoy had a very rough journey, but at that ran below his notch. Baird showed speed. Tommy O'Brien seems to be of no present account. Ocorno made up ground in the stretch.

Scratched—14235 Mitten, 103; 13746 Tom English, 102; 14231 Cast, 106; 14237 Phallas, 102; 13006 Lydia S., 99.

Lovable, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Yoloco, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Lemond, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Decoy, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. g, by Meddler—Little Lady II.

Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third were driving. King's Highway over-reced himself. Be wes almost thrown over the ferce in a jem on the first turn but recovered and won running away. Garlend Farr had a rough journey. He was cut off several times, when he tried to get through in between Ances and Evelyn Byrd. Andes ran a bad race. He was favored at the start and had he been himself could not have lost. Both he and Evelyn Byrd quit badly in the stretch.

Overweights—Garland Berr, 3 pounds; King's Highway, 3.

King's Bighway, place, 8 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Garland Berr, place, 6 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Andes, place, 2 to 5,
